- B. The person who reserves any area is responsible for that area and must be present for the entire time designated in the reservation.
- C. Reservations are made through the Foundation office and are complete when rental fees, deposits and a signed reservation form are completed. It is suggested that all reservations be finalized at least two weeks prior to any event.
- D. An inspection of the rented area will take place prior to the scheduled event.
- E. Keys to the facilities must be picked up during normal office hours (7:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m., M-F) immediately prior to the scheduled function. Keys shall be returned within 24 hours from end of function.
- F. Reservations for weddings and/or wedding receptions will be accepted for residents and members of their immediate families only (Mother, Father, Daughter, and Son).
- G. Due to the public nature of the Foundation's clubhouses, it is necessary that all doors remained unlocked during all functions. This is required by state and local fire code and includes the doors to the east deck, the west deck and the back kitchen doors.
- H. No open flames of any type are allowed except in the barbeque grill. This includes but is not limited to tiki torches, candles, lamps, insect repellent devices or fireplace fires. During fire bans, follow posted instructions.
- I. Signage including directional signs are a violation of Genesee's covenants and consequently are not allowed anywhere on Foundation property. A map is attached for your convenience and distribution.
- J. Commercial use of the clubhouses is forbidden. No admission fees, for-profit groups or sales meetings are allowed.
- K. Event set up will be completed by the Foundation staff as indicated on the function form filled out at the time of rental. Specific set up requests require 48 hours prior notice. If no set request is indicated on the function form, all items will be left for set up by the renter.
- L. Music is permitted inside the clubhouse only and should not be audible outside. Violation of this rule will result in a visit to the event by Genesee Foundation Patrol officers. Music is allowed until 11:00 p.m.
- M. The artwork on display in the Vista clubhouse is privately owned. The purchase price for the artwork is posted in the downstairs hallway. Renter is responsible for the art work as well as the clubhouse furnishings and the building. Artists currently sign a release when they display their work. The paintings and artwork should not be touched or removed from the walls.

- N. Parking is provided in the lots at Vista and Oxley. Access to the Vista Clubhouse cannot be blocked at any time. There is one handicap space provided for use by vehicles with permits only.
